The Central Okanagan Charitable Gaming Association (COCGA) is an organization of 150+ members that acts as a liaison between the Gaming Policy and Enforcement Branch and the local not-for-profit and charitable groups that receive Community Gaming Grants in the Okanagan & Kootenays. The organization is overseen by a volunteer board of directors who are members of local not-for-profit and charitable groups.

COCGA offers support and information by:

- Offering free membership
- Hosting periodic meetings providing information on updates and changes to Community Gaming Grants
- Periodic updates and reminders of grant application deadlines and news regarding Community Gaming Grants
- Workshops on preparing & submitting Community Gaming Grant applications
- Acting as a point of contact for groups that have questions or need assistance with their grants

Thank you for your support
